Football Work Is Gaining Headway at All Colleges

Moleskin Wearers at Many Institutions to Swing Into Real Action This Week; Yale Looms Up Strongly for Championship Honors of the East John W. Heisman, formerly coach of

By Ray McCarthy

And now for the grand and glorious intercollegiate football season, on of the most exciting and most spectacular of all sporting carnivals. The 1920 campaign gives much promise of being a knock-out. We had a wonderful season in 1919, one that will long be remembered, what with upsets following each other in rapid succession every, week-end and the return of many stars from war service. But this season already gives indications of exceeding that of a year ago.

Everything in the sporting world is was to normal; yet, instead of decreasing, public interest in all sports is increasing by tremendous bounds, is increasing by tremendous beautiful have a good chance against the Anaby will be back, as will have a good the season is a success.

However, Folwell will have a good thance to repeat. He has a fine-look-ing squad with several veterans in it.

Treasury Certificates Held by Banks Increase 52.8 During Week; Further Expansion in Note Circuation

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Reduction of 66.3 millions in total bill holdings, Coosa.

Increase of 52.8 millions
Bessie Dollar. and former high school star. Baumberger is now pitching with his real preliminary training. The players restricted to the ideas of their new coach before they played their first game. Accordingly, for the last ten days about thirty candidates have been at work at the George School, near Philadelphia.

Only light work has been possible there, but beginning this week the squad will move in to Franklin Field and the regular scrimmage work will begin. This is necessar, as the first match, that with Delaware College, takes place on Saturday, September 26.

Practically an entirely new coaching staff has been engaged for the season, as, in addition to Heisman, Charles A. Keinath, '10, a former famous quarterback; Louis A. Young, '13, captain of in treasury certificate holdings, is indicated by the Federal Reserve Board's Weekly bank statement, issued at close of business yesterday. As against a decline of 55.7 millions in deposit liabilities the Reserve Board's Reserve Board's Heading. Cardiff Frederick R. Kellogg Tampico INCOMING STEAUGHTE the 1812 team, and Dr. Charles M. Earning Assets Decrease

It is understood that the bulk of the certificates acquired during the week by the Boston and Cleveland banks will be held until September 15, when they are to be redeemed by the government. Total earning assets of the reserve banks show a decrease of $13,500,000.

Of the total of 1,299.1 millions of paper secured by government war obligations, 675.5 millions, or 52 per cent, were secured by Liberty Bonds; 316.3 millions, or 24.3 per cent, by Victory notes, and 307.3 millions, or 23.7 per cent, by treasury certificates, as against 49.6, 23.8 and 26.6 per cent of a corresponding total of 1,332.9 millions shown the week before. Totals of discounted paper held by the Boston, Philadelphia and Cleveland banks include 193.2 millions of paper discounted for the New York bank and six other reserve banks in the South and Middle West, while acceptance holdings of the Philadelphia, Cleveland and San Francisco banks are inclusive of 22.7 millions of bankers' bills purchased from the New York and Chicago banks, compared with 34.5 millions reported the week before.

Government Deposits Fall

Government Deposits Fall
Government deposits show a reduction for the week of 34.4 millions, members' Reserve and other deposits show a combined decline of 1.3 millions, while the "float" carried by the Reserve banks and treated as a deduction from gross deposits was 20 millions larger than the week before, with the consequence that calculated net deposits are 55.7 millions less than on the preceding Friday. All Reserve banks report further additions to their note circulation, the total expansion for the week including, besides 51.9 millions of the Federal Reserve note circulation, also 3.7 millions of Federal Reserve bank notes.

also 3.7 millions of Federal Reserve bank notes.

Acquisition of gold received during the week from foreign sources partly accounts for an increase of 13.9 millions in gold reserves. The capital account shows a further increase of $58.000, in consequence of moderate Federal reserve stock issues by Reserve banks.

During the week the New York Reserve Bank purchased from local member banks and sold to the Boston and Cleveland reserve banks a total of $45.5 transaction brought about a substantial improvement in the New York bank's reserve position, through a corresponding credit in the Gold Settlement Fund, besides causing a more equable geographical distribution of treasury tax certificates, thereby facilitating the redemption of these certificates at maturity.
